

Illegal Animal Fighting

Equipment Photos

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

- ▶ Treadmill: A device with a rotational platform. The dog is usually harnessed in the treadmill and encouraged to run by placing a small bait animal or animal skin out of the dog's reach.

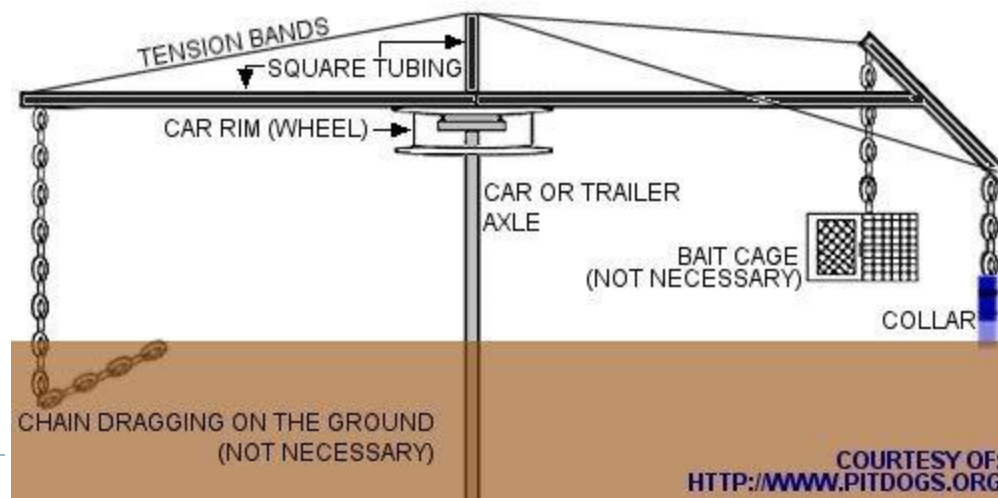

The Pit or Ring

- ▶ Walls and floor (carpet in this case) are stained with blood.

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

- ▶ Jenny a.k.a. Catmill: A device with one or more spokes rotating on a center shaft. It is similar to a horse walker. The dog is harnessed in the device and encouraged to run by placing bait out of reach.

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

- ▶ Springpoles: A device with an animal hide or rubber tube hung from a pole or tree. The dog bites and hangs off the ground. Weights can be added to the dog's neck for strength conditioning

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

- ▶ Breaking sticks a.k.a. parting sticks: A wedge shaped stick used to break the hold of the dog during a fight. They are usually made of wood or plastic. Teeth marks, blood stains or hair embedded on the stick may be visible upon examination.

Plastic or poly breaking sticks

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

- ▶ Medical and First Aid Equipment: Most trainers have medical equipment and antibiotics to repair lacerations and tears.

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Dogs

Wood breaking stick

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Cocks

- ▶ Training Muffs: Small padded objects resembling mini boxing gloves. Used for training and sparring matches

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Cocks

- ▶ Spurs, gaffs or blades: Metal or plastic objects placed on the cocks leg over the snubbed natural spur. They are designed to inflict serious injury to an opponent

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Cocks

- ▶ Lunge Line: An elastic device tied to one leg to exercise and promote endurance.

A variety of other methods are used for strengthening and endurance

Equipment Used for Training and Fighting: Cocks

- ▶ Medical supplies
- ▶ Scales

